

Sara

Philipe Monteiro

Some spend a lifetime searching for gold
Crossing the ocean, like in days of old
And now that I've found you I realize

That you are forever where my heart liesFrom sunrise to sunset, oh Sara

You're as good as it can get, oh Sara

I keep my promise to come back someday

Oh Sara, never changeI miss the siesta and water so blue

I dream of the white sands and Sara, of you

In my heart there's a spirit like a fire it burns

Watch over our secret until I returnFrom sunrise to sunset, oh Sara

You're as good as it can get, oh Sara

I keep my promise to come back someday

Oh Sara, never changeFrom sunrise to sunset, oh Sara

You're as good as it can get, oh Sara

I keep my promise to come back someday

Oh Sara, never changeFrom sunrise to sunset, oh Sara

You're as good as it can get, oh Sara

I keep my promise to come back someday

Oh Sara, never change
