Farmers

Hayley Sales

Opened
Like a book being read for the first time
I look around
At everything I'd always seen but it's Different todayCause I could be happy
Just being farmers
Just being farmers
With you with meFar away
From the city lights and the constant rat race
We'll use our hands
To navigate a different fate where
Nothing's plannedCause I could be happy
Just being farmers
Just being farmers
With you with meWe'll grow tomatoes
Talk about black holes and sulfur skies
Taking our time not to rush
As life takes a natural courseCause I couldn't be happy
Just being farmers
Just being farmers
Away from it all
Away from it all
Away from it all
I could be happy just to be alive
With you with me alwayspor nica x)
