Southern Smile

Cavo

With a southern smile she don?t seem cold
Drive right through to a Midwest storm
There?s a broken heart across the field
Where the sun don?t shine and the wounds won?t heal
With a sober smile I can?t sit still Gonna leave this life and you know I will
With all I?ve lost and all I hold
There?s a need in me to lose control

Till I see you, but you don?t see me
I bleed you, but you won?t heal me
I scream you, but you don?t hear me
I dreamed you, but you don?t see me
Gonna cross that line, I won?t look back
Gonna save myself from the things I lack
With all I?ve lost and all I?m told
There?s a need in me to lose control
