Low Down Payment

Crosby & Nash

There's one more thing
I would like to say
About what you do
There's one more thing
There might be one more way
To do what you doYou don't have anything
Can there be anything
Left for you to prove?
You have already made your move
Don't you even know who you are?
(Star?)And I woke up this morning
To the sound of a woman
A woman crying
Crying for a roomful
A roomful of dreams
Dreams dyingYou don't have to tell the truth
Just as long as you can stand there
And ignore the pain
You've got a ticket to ride on this train
Oh, by the way, you're gonna ride it alone
(Alone)It's a low down payment
On this pillar
The pillar of salt
It's only had one owner
And he up and died
He died of guiltAnd you can drive it out of here
All you do is find a gear
That will not blow it apart
That's if you can even get it to start
If the damn thing just had a heart
If it had a heart, heart, some kinda heart
