Ones Who Love You

Alvvays

Take, take from the ones who love you
Leave, leave with the ones who don'tLie, lie with the ones who like you
Oh, lay, lay with the ones who won'tWhen lightning strikes
I'll be on my bike
I won't be stuck inside
I will be taking flightThey, they are the ones who love you
We, we are the ones who don't
Hang up on the ones that need you
Watch out for the ones who won'tWhen lightning strikes
I'll be on my bike
I won't be stuck inside
I will be taking flight
And when the wheels come off
I'll be an astronaut
But I won't be lost in space
I will be skipping rocksWhen you live on an island
Nothing ever falls in place
The winters are violent
And you can't ever feel your face
You can't fucking feel your faceWhen lightning strikes
I'll be on my bike
I won't be stuck inside
I will be taking flightAnd when the wheels come off
I'll be an astronaut
I will be lost in space
I'll be on LippincottTake
