Thick As Thieves

Short Stack

Bled dry,
A bullet never lies
Look into my eyes, girl,
Would I lie to you?

Stained grave
Do you feel the same way
Tears flood from our eyes, girl
Would I die for you?

Start your engine
To your car
I feel that
Romance will take
The backseat
Tonight

Part, the seal
To my heart
I feel that
My chance
Is under the Moonlight

Watch them fall
(It's a disaster)
To their knees
(Forever after)
As I lay
I think I'm flat-lining

Watch them fall
(It's a disaster)
Thick as thieves
(Forever after)
As I lay
I think I'm flat-lining

Sorrow
Wait until tomorrow

Hold me close
Never go
Know that I would lie
To you

I'm so insane
I still feel that sharp pain
Running down my back
Girl
Could I die for you?

Watch them fall
(It's a disaster)
To their knees
(Forever after)
As I lay
I think I'm flat-lining

Watch them fall
(It's a disaster)
Thick as thieves
(Forever after)
As I lay
I think I'm flat-lining

Forever just won't
Be the same
Still I forgive you
The pain
Take these broken wings
Fly
From the heart you stole

Watch them fall
To their knees
As I lay
I think I'm flat-lining

Watch them fall
(It's a disaster)
To their knees
(Forever after)
As I lay
I think I'm flat-lining

Watch them fall

(It's a disaster)
Thick as thieves
(Forever after)
As I lay
I think I'm flat-lining
