

Time In My Hands

Catamenia

So still is the night, that surrounds me...
    Into sweetest dark
    So near is the time, to set me free...
From the poison light Here almost end of path, that took me here
To leave weak past behind, passing to...Rise...got the time in my hands
    Future`s here where I stand
    I...control your destiny
The one who always be Sacred place in holy land
    Where black raven flies
    Last steps to the gate, where is my fate
    Waiting me to find
Now I become the guide, lord of the night
    Who make immortals rise
