Sundown (back In The Briars)

Iron & Wine

There go the cops with the tomcat teeth
Here come the church mice trying too hard
She had a way to be kind with words
I had a knife in the back of my carNobody knows when the rain may come
Nobody wants to wake up and be cruel
She locked the door and the sun went down
In South Carolina with nothing to loseAll of her naked boys
And not even I was true

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/