Summer Please

Chixdiggit!

the first time i saw you in the back of that dump truck miss earth day in '98 i hate parades but i didn't that day musta been something i ate we spent that summer just with each other didn't do anything twice now you go to school in the east for the winter you come back home it should be like the last time let's have that summer again let's have that summer again let's have that summer: let's have that summer: let's have that summer again let's have that summer: let's have that summer: let's have that summer again let's have that summer again
