

I've Got a Quarter In My Pocket

Gary Allan

I've got a quarter in my pocket won't you tell me what I should do?
Should I put it in the phone so I can come crawling home to you
Or should I put it in the jukebox and play another heartbreak song
Well I'm leaning towards the latter and I really hate being alone Gonna flip it in the air, gonna watch it fly
If it's heads I might love again, if it's tails I'll cry I've got a quarter in my pocket won't you tell me what I should do?
Should I put it in the phone so I can come crawling home to you
Or should I put it in the jukebox and play another heartbreak song
Well I'm leaning towards the latter and I really hate being alone Here I am again on the same ol' stool
With the same ol' question at hand and the mind of a fool

Songwriters

WARREN, HARRY / GORDON, MACK Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., Universal Music Publishing Group Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>