

Give Up

CSS

Stop, okay, you can press
You can push but it will always be the same
And I've been waiting so long
Anyway, how does it feel to be free again? I wanna fall in love again
I want to feel the summer flame
You know I really want to stay
I have to go it's just getting late Check out the door
I'm not alright Give up on this, don't give up on you
Give up on me, don't give up on us
Give up on me, don't give up on you
Give up on this, don't give up on us Nights are so long, fast run the days
Chunky as a lifetime, wrapped inside a cage
Magnification, tasting new sensations
Body exploration, tiny declarations I wanna run to the milky way
How many games do we have to play?
It's a new face but it looks the same
Just send me back to Amsterdam And if you see me crying, see me begging, see me lying
Alright now
And if you see me drinking, see me calling in the morning
Alright now, alright now, alright now Give up on this, don't give up on you
Give up on me, don't give up on us
Give up on me, don't give up on you
Give up on this, don't give up on us Just waking up, it's hard to say
I feel I am not still the same
Blending all the coffee, laughing at a party
Acting like it's normal, feeling all the boredom This time I won't make any mistakes
Will you forget who I am?
Everything changes in a day
My heart reminds it's you I crave And if you see me crying, see me begging, see me lying
Alright now
And if you see me drinking, see me calling in the morning
Alright now, alright now, alright now Life is just too serious, it won't be mysterious
Life is just too serious, it won't be mysterious
Life is just too serious, it won't be mysterious
Life is just too short, you know what it costs Life is just too serious, it won't be mysterious
Life is just too serious, it won't be mysterious
Life is just too serious, it won't be mysterious
Life is just too short, you know what it costs
