

Blood Runs Cold

Def Leppard

I heard this line one time 'bout tryin' to save the world
Have you ever tried to save yourself?
A wide eyed suicide drive remains a fake
As if you'd ever, ever go and make the same mistake
Strung out as the night comes crawlin'
Your halo of thorns is fallin' Blood runs cold
I feel it in my bones
But you don't know your time is up
Blood runs cold Somebody somewhere is screamin' out the words
Do they ever really ease the pain?
I guess what I'm tryin' to say is whose life is it anyway
Because livin', livin' is the best revenge you can play
This fall from grace, I see your face it's over Blood runs cold
I feel it in my bones
But you don't know your time is up
Blood runs cold From you love was kind
Resolved left scarred and blind
Wasted and naked in the wings
Denyin' twist of fate
Demandin' heaven's gate
Lyn' in wait above the wind Strung out as the night comes crawlin'
Your halo of thorns is fallin' Blood runs cold
I feel it in my bones
But you don't know your time is up
Blood runs cold
Blood runs cold
Blood runs cold
