

I Built a Town

Mount Moriah

I built a house behind my eyes
I sold a veil for you to hide
I grew flowers to cut
Towers to hold you high
But there was nothing I could do
To keep you inside

Alter of muse assimilate me
Sacrificed in perfect physique
I offer patterns and lands
Relearn the symmetry
Tear loose from the stitches and
Show me how youâ€™re free

I collect shadows and save
Echoes so you canâ€™t hear
Turn the soil swing the gate
Relent the binding fields
Dance slow through the hollows now
Go on disappear
