Once Again

Burning Heads

What you say about me,
What you say
All those lies you're telling me,
All those lies
Once again, you're pulling me down,
Once again, I'm fucked up
All the hate you're spreading round
All around
All those lies you're telling me,
All those lies
Once again, you're pulling me down,
Once again, I'm fucked up
And now you're alone
Look at you
Do you really feel better?
Take a look at your face
Look at you
You're not getting wiser
You talk too much
Too much for nothing
Nothing real ever comes out of you
I tried so many times to understand
I can't find no explanation
Now, I don't give a fuck.
