blink-182

You are better than me
Girls, money and everything
I try to compete with you
But you beat me at everything I do I see in you
The things that I would like to be
But I'm different from you
So you will have to be like me I cannot be bought
My personality is what I choose
I was brought up without a silver cup
I won't covet the things owned by you For all the world
Material things are now more and more
Jealousy for you and me I won't covet the things owned by your store I cannot be bought
My personality is what I choose
I was brought up without a silver cup
I won't covet the things owned by you
