

Seems to Be

Shop Assistants

I was sixteen with a mind of my own
And you were seventeen, and you thought you were grown
And I found my thrills when we went up the hill
And you use to feel me, my body would get chills
I picked you up in my 89 Chevy
I bought you candy and popcorn at the movies
I had it made when I got paid
And we go roller skate, but every thing has changed, wait
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with this household)
Seems to be to me
(You're always trying to take control)
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with the kissing)
Seems to be to me
(Something is missing)
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with the making love)
Seems to be to me
(You forgot what love was)
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with the kissing)
Seems to be to me
(Something is missing)
(I gotta know, you think I don't know)
We had fun that year that you turned twenty-one
You were my world, 'cause you brought me my baby girl
She's so fine and she's, she's all mine
And I promised to love you un-until the end of time
That's okay 'cause I felt the same way
But you're running game, and that's when everything changed
The phone calls and your two ways, and you, your attitude
You watched too many pimp tapes
After all of the thing's, that we been through
I'm still willing to take care of you
Girl we've been together for so long, yes we had
I just want to know what's going on
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with this household)

Seems to be to me
(You're always trying to take control)
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with the kissing)
Seems to be to me
(Something is missing)
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with the making love)
Seems to be to me
(You forgot what love was)
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong the kissing)
Seems to be to me
(Something is missing)
What happen to kissing and hugging?
Instead of all that cussing and fussing
I want to know right now
What you got to say
What happen to respecting me
Instead of spending time in the street
I don't need to know
In fact I got to go
Wait baby let me plead my case
I got a few more things to say
Shit is making me mad
Girl what I do so bad?
What about that girl, who you sending money to down the way?
(What about)
You been cheating on me, she had your baby?
(What about)
The lies and the deceit I face day to day?
(What about)
I don't feel the way I used to, I lost my faith in you?
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with this household)
Seems to be to me
(You're always trying to take control)
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with the kissing)
Seems to be to me
(Something missing)
Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with the making love)
Seems to be to me
(You forgot what love was)

Seems to be to me
(Something wrong with the kissing)
Seems to be to me
(Something is missing)
