Christians To The Lions

Behemoth

Behold bastard son
I am the evil one
No glory to be reached
No more thy slaveryThe passions I besieged
Spawn terror smash thy will
Ye pale dominion fades away
My will dominatesAnd watch my star arise
Burning up the earth
Sun, the eye of Gods
Threw into the spaceWatch ye moon eclipse
Falling from thy grace
Watch all nation's cry
All feared of his namePraise the flame
Watch angels falling
From the skies
Praise the flamePraise the flame
I killed thy God
My will is done
Thou art LordRise me, rise me high
Lead through the gates of sun
Rise me, rise me high
Where angels do not dare to flyInvite to feast of Gods
And let me drift away
Leave flames of infamy
And watch me kiss the stars
