

Prepared Remarks

Lieutenant

Oh, there you are
A pilotless car
Atop a spectral spine you feel alright
Supine you thief a dream of flight
I see you you've come with a set of notes you can't put down
Prepared remarks stand in for what you came for, thought
Sparseness never felt so good, all told
Oh, don't just nod, don't sit back so far away
A laundered thought
It leaves no trace at all
Speak for the sake of filling blanks
A static spark won't ignite the tank
I see you you've come with a set of notes you can't put down
Prepared remarks stand in for what you came for, thought
Sparseness never felt so good, all told
Oh, don't just nod, don't sit back
and say you are a knot unlike another
Oh, that's so unkind
A story pastured for so long can't wait another year
The harder you pull, the tighter the knot
Sparseness never felt so good, all told
Oh, don't just nod, don't sit back
and say you are a knot unlike another
Oh, that's so unkind
A story pastured for so long can't wait another year
