Nothing Compares

Third Day

I've heard all the stories
I've seen all the signs
Witnessed all the glory
Tasted all that's fineBut nothing compares
To the greatness of knowing You Lord, oh no
Nothing compares
To the greatness of knowing You Lord, oh noI see all the people
Wasting all their time
Building up their riches
For a life that's fineBut nothing compares
To the greatness of knowing You Lord, oh no
Nothing compares
To the greatness of knowing You Lord, oh noI find myself just living for today
'Cause I don't know what tomorrow's gonna bringSo no matter if I rise or fall
I'll never be alone, oh noNothing compares
To the greatness of knowing You Lord, oh no
Nothing compares
To the greatness of knowing You Lord, oh noNothing compares
To the greatness of knowing You Lord, oh no
Nothing compares to You Lord
Nothing compares to You Lord
Nothing compares compares compares
Compares compares to You Lord, no noNothing compares to You, Lord
