

Lonesome Pine

Carbon Leaf

She made her way
She felt she was to blame and her porcelain dolls
She's boxed them all
And along the way, she changed her name Lonesome pine, rain or shine
Stands alone, roots unknown
And I'm as brave as you and I'm as afraid as you
And I'm as brave as you and I'm as afraid as you are too She let me in
And then, she changed her mind
With a sad echo, she's all her own
She shook the blame, she changed her name Lonesome pine, rain or shine
Stands alone, roots unknown
And I'm as brave as you and I'm as afraid as you
And I'm as brave as you and I'm as afraid as you are too
