

In My Zone (feat. Mike Posner & B.o.B)

Rittz

I've got sunshine in my pocket, I'm just right here in my zone
I've got Sade in my tape deck, I'm just movin' right along
All these haters really love me, they just pretend that they don't
'Cause I've got sunshine in my pocket, I'm just right here in my zone

In my zone(Zo-oh-oh-oh, oh, oh, oh)

In my zone (zo-oh-oh-oh, oh, oh, oh)

In my zone (zo-oh-oh-oh, oh, oh, oh)

When I'm in my, when I'm in my

(Zo-oh-oh-oh, oh, oh, oh) in my zoneIn my old school bumpin' that "Kiss of Life" beneath the city lights

Caught up in the moment, getting misty eyed

'Bout to give my past life a long kiss goodnight

This dream difficult for me to visualize

And that was real when they said the limit is the sky

But my feet on solid ground, no more stalling now

On the road to get it 'cause, when it rain, it pour

But now the storm finally calming down

Up in my cutlass driving, the sun is shining

My Strange piece studded with a ton of diamonds

I ain't got a bunch of money 'cause it cost to grind

Silly beats being burnt up with my stomach growlin'

In the darkest island, got the heart to fight

I see the stars are bright, they screaming Jonny Valiant

Rappers wanna bite me, they crocodiling

I'll be up in Neiman Marcus smiling

Try to walk a mile inside my J's, playing make believe

You could say that you played in the major league

Wear my heart on my sleeve on the stage and leave

I feel wet from the sweat on my famous tee

I'm never scared, fuck shaking like a maple leaf

'Cause runaways for me is unknown

So I lit up my J, from a kid up was straight

Crown Royal, now I'm in my zoneI've got sunshine in my pocket, I'm just right here in my zone

I've got Sade in my tape deck, I'm just movin' right along

All these haters really love me, they just pretend that they don't

'Cause I've got sunshine in my pocket, I'm just right here in my zone

In my zoneThis ain't no ordinary, dog

I was sick of being poor and said enough

Right up 85 North, I never was Working, breaking down doors and barriers

Still representing Georgia, I'm feeling the support
Spread the word 'cause the more, the merrier
Nobody blowing off the torch I carry
Got annoyed from every time they point and stare and judge
All because I got Jordans on, I got a gorgeous blonde
And my jewelry blinds, I got stupid style
Getting' paid doing music now, I'm putting' huge amounts
Inside a few accounts, I got a crew that's down
In case you wanna come and duke it out
If I was you, I'd throw the deuce and bounce
And we just blew an ounce
My hotel room looking like a hookah lounge
I'm blowing up like a bazooka round
I got booed and bowed but stayed positive
Even when I didn't have a pot to piss in
I was sitting on a bottle steady plotting this
And I'll be fine dining at The Optimist
I got the backseat bass and the lobster bisk
And took a shot of whiskey to the dome
Made a toast to the homies that are gone
Two for the fans and the love they shown(I'm in my zone) I've got sunshine in my pocket, I'm just right here in my zone

I've got Sade in my tape deck, I'm just movin' right along
All these haters really love me, they just pretend that they don't
'Cause I've got sunshine in my pocket, I'm just right here in my zone
In my zone My calendar at this caliber's for the life of a bachelor
I'm burning through cannabis canister after canister
Um, so many cameras, they flashing, I never glance at 'em
Lost inside of a landfill of thoughts while watching this dancer
I'm wondering to myself if she's got some booty enhancer
Either way, I feel the deep inclination of putting my hands on 'er
I'm a modern day Galileo who lives in Atlanta
The capital of the ratchets, aristocrats and traffickers
A practitioner, practice until I master it
Passionate 'bout my adjectives, syllables so elaborate
Anything less to describe me is just inaccurate
You're a student of classes in which I am a graduate
Immaculate vernacular, Bat-mobile look like Dracula
Giving these boys the blues while telling these hoes to saddle up
You catching feelings, I think you squarer than Madison, I'm I'm in my zone, ain't no way I'll ever snap out of it I've got sunshine in my pocket, I'm just right here in my zone

I've got Sade in my tape deck, I'm just movin' right along
All these haters really love me, they just pretend that they don't
'Cause I've got sunshine in my pocket, I'm just right here in my zone

In my zone Zo-oh-oh-oh, oh, oh, oh (in my zone)
Zo-oh-oh-oh, oh, oh, oh (in my zone)
