Thinking Of You

Soul For Real

Thinking you
Thinking you
Thinking youThinking of you in the afternoon
Thinking bout the love weve made in the evening
Keeps me dreaming or feeling you in the bedroom
I can't wait, I'm thinking of love, Im thinking of you
(You can't wait tonight)There was a time I was alone
No one to call my own, thinking you
Youve brought out the lover in me, oh girlAnd now I dont know what I would do
If I was to lose your love
I get a warm feeling down inside
And the thought of you doesn't blows my mindThinking of you in the afternoon
Thinking bout the love we've made in the evening
Keeps me dreaming or feeling you in the bedroom
I can't wait, I'm thinking of love, Im thinking of you
(You can't wait tonight)Youre all I need, your love is like the air I breathe
Its just impossible for me to do without you, your loving I cant deny
So if you feel I never told you let me make this record clearI always want to win my life
Baby, I got to love you by my side
Where will I go without you in my life?
How could I love? Youre all I need to make it rightIt so kills all my loving, I throw away my pride
You gave me side of being your love
And this feeling I just can't hide
Forever Ill be thinking of youThinking of you in the afternoon
Thinking bout the love we've made in the evening
Keeps me dreaming or feeling you in the bedroom
I can't wait, I'm thinking of love, I'm thinking of you
(You can't wait tonight)Thinking of you in the afternoon
Thinking bout the love've we'd made in the evening
Keeps me dreaming or feeling you in the bedroom
I can't wait, I'm thinking of love, I'm thinking of you
(You can't wait tonight, no)Thinking of you in the afternoon
The evening keeps me dreaming
Or feeling you, baby, in the bedroom
