Once Upon Your Dead Body

Coheed and Cambria

If hello could only drop its 'O'
And it stayed in the front door's way
Of your home, would you live there still?
Could that make you everything I hate?
WaitDo you remember why you did it?
(No, I don't)
Do you remember why she left?
(I, do)No, I hope you die right now
Will you drink my chemical?Is there price to burn this paradise?
Where you left all parts that hurt to mend
If I don't stay awake will she come here again?
For my wish of only one last kissDo you remember why you did it?
(No, I don't)
Do you remember why she left?
(I, do)Do you remember why you did it?
(No, I don't)
Do you remember why she left?
(I, do)No, I hope you die right now
Will you drink my chemical?And if you cry out loud
It'll only make me feel too good
It'll only make me feel too good
It'll only make me feel too goodOnce upon your dead body
