

San Marco Sunset

Jesse Rice

I woke up to the palm trees playing
Our song from long ago
It took me straight back to the days when
Your body was mine to hold
Our love is like a Ferris wheel
We just spun round and round
Both of us went up
But only I came down

Like a San Marco sunset
Memories of a first kiss
You were mine and we went
Walking in the sand
Hand in hand
And I'll never forget
The taste of salt on your lips
I fell for you so fast
Too bad it didn't last
Like a San Marco sunset

Baby, tell me what's a boy to do
When he finds himself alone
On the coast of somewhere new
Longing for that girl back home

In a San Marco sunset
Memories of a first kiss
You were mine and we went
Walking in the sand
Hand in hand
And I'll never forget
The taste of salt on your lips
I fell for you so fast
Too bad it didn't last
Like the San Marco sunset

Oh, some were red, and some were blue
Every night was different
Just like with you
I can see the colours out on the shore

I wish I had just one more

Sunset

Memories of a first kiss
You were mine and we went
Walking in the sand
Hand in hand
And I'll never forget
The taste of salt on your lips
I fell for you so fast
Too bad it didn't last like a San Marco sunset

That San Marco sunset

Whoa - oh -oh

I can see you walking on the sand

White dress flowing

Hand in hand

The world around us was so real

I remember now how I felt

The day you walked away and left

Me standing there all by myself

Looking out across the bay

Knowing that it felt like hell

And I'm never gonna let you go

No, I'm never gonna let you go

Like a San Marco sunset
