

Living My Life

DaVille

I feel a change in the weather around me
I'm seeing differently, nothing's the same
Everyone's asking questions about me
They say I lost my faith and I'm not the same Lord, I feel fine, I haven't lost my mind
My heart's open wide and my eyes on the sky
I'm living my life I can't be sure that I wake up tomorrow
But that doesn't matter to me, I love for today And I still know love and I still know pain
My heart's open wide and my eyes on the sky
I'm living my life, oh, I'm living my life I handle on my own, wherever I may roam
'Coz I'm not alone Well, I feel fine, I haven't lost my mind
My heart's open wide and my eye's on the sky
I'm living my life I still know love and I still know pain
My heart's open wide and my eyes on the sky
My heart's open wide on the sky
My heart's open wide on the sky
I'm living my life
