I Will Follow You

Shelley

If I could paint a picture of the days gone by
The wind blowing through your hair, life without a single care
Every picture tells a story as the cold wind cries
Now you've left and gone away and all I have is yesterday
And always knowing well
Shoulda never let you go
And to the ends of time
I'll follow you, oh yeah
I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow
And the day will come when you say
You belong
I remember what you told me, we could never be
The tears falling from my eyes as you stared into the night
And as I awoke this morning to a darkened sky
All I seemed to want to say is take me back to yesterday
And now the rain
Washes the tears from my eyes
And to the ends of time
I'll follow you, oh yeah
I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow
And the day will come when you say
You belong
I see you walking and my heart begins to pound
Like the sound of distant thunder as it echoes to the ground
Well, I'm lost but now I'm found
I'll follow you, oh yeah
And now the rain
Washes the tears from my eyes
And to the ends of time
I swear until I die
I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow you

I will follow
I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow
And the day will come when you say
And the day will come when you say
And the day will come when you say
You belong to me
