

All Sewn Up

Lucero

with bad tattoos
all bit up nothin to lose well ive been a fool for oh so long any hope Id hear of home is gonew now the mississippi mud cakes my boots I'm afraid that i might drown if i dont move from these waters that run so deep from these southern ways and lazy heat now im stuck
ain't got much to show
with a little luck
just watch me go
I've got torn up knees and caloused fingertips broken vocal chords and busted lips this goddamn guitar is never quite in tune I'd leave it behind if it werent all i could do
now im stuck
with a little luck, luck, luck
just watch me go
hell im all sewn up with bad tattoos cant hide from the faded, bleedin' truth well it follows me wherever i might move all sewn up with bad tattoos well san francisco sure sounds nice and brooklyn might suit me just fine well life down here just moves so slow it seems like a river barge pushin upstream
now im stuck
aint got much to show
with a little luck
now im all sewn up with bad tattoos cant hide from the faded truth
well it follows me wherever i might move im all sewn up with bad tattoos
