

Obliviant

Beanbag

No don't, you're looking so out of it
No don't, you're looking so out of it
Don't even bother 'cause you shouldn't even try
So no don't, you're looking with doubtWalk fast, you're running so you better stop
Whisper loud, you're screaming so you're overheard
Don't look, your eyes are fixed alone on it
Smashed wall, piecing it together with your own hands, self mindNo don't, you're looking so out of it
No don't, you're looking so out of it
Don't even bother 'cause you shouldn't even try
So no don't, you're looking with doubtNo don't, you're looking so out of it
No don't, you're looking so out of it
Don't even bother 'cause you shouldn't even try
So no don't, you're looking with doubtSlurring, your words are all bound to ends
Dizzy, the concrete slaps you in the face
Get up, nothing is responding though
Silence but sirens are your wake as you creep into existenceNo don't, you're looking so out of it
No don't, you're looking so out of it
Don't even bother 'cause you shouldn't even try
So, no don't, you're looking with doubtNo don't, you're looking so out of it
No don't, you're looking so out of it
Don't even bother 'cause you shouldn't even try
So no don't, you're looking with doubtYou need, you need a breakthrough
I need, I need a breakthrough
You need a breakthrough
I need a breakthroughYou need a breakthrough
I need a breakthrough
You need a breakthrough
I need, I need a breakthroughNo don't, you're looking so out of it
No don't, you're looking so out of it
Don't even bother 'cause you shouldn't even try
So no don't, you're looking with doubtNo don't, you're looking so out of it
No don't, you're looking so out of it
Don't even bother 'cause you shouldn't even try
So no don't, you're looking with doubt
