She'll Go to Pieces

Deep Blue Something

She won't take no for an answer
And I feel obliged
To at least waste some timeAnd I've got nothing to gain by it
And we all may shackle together by thisCHORUS:
She'll go to pieces
When she hears that I told you
But I'm coming unglued
So I told you the dealAnd I've got nothing to gain by it
And we all may shackle together by thisPlease don't take this the wrong way
But I half think that you and I look goodAnd I've got nothing to gain by it
And we all may shackle together by thisCHORUSAnd I've got nothing to gain by it
And we all may shackle together by this
Yeah
