

Salt In Our Wounds (Thulsa Doom Version)

Him

Here we are
In the maelstrom of love
Waiting for the call
To sooth our hearts
Here we are
And don't know how to stop
Waiting for the war
To end it all Love is insane and baby
We are too
It's our hearts little grave
And the salt in our wounds
Love is insane and baby
So we too, yeah
It's our hearts little grave
And the salt in our wounds Here we are Right back where we began
Waiting for sweet love
With open arms
Here we are
Just like before
Waiting for the wounds
Of that tender storm Love is insane and baby
We are too
It's our hearts little grave
And the salt in our wounds
Love is insane and baby
So we too, yeah
It's our hearts little grave
And the salt in our wounds Love is insane and baby
We are too
It's our hearts little grave
And the salt in our wounds
Love is insane and baby
So we too, yeah
It's our hearts little grave
And the salt in our wounds Love is insane and baby
We are too
It's our hearts little grave
And the salt in our wounds

Love is insane and baby
So we too, yeah
It's our hearts little grave
And the salt in our woundsThe salt in our wounds
The salt in our wounds
