To Be With You Again

The SteelDrivers

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I cannot wait for dawn to break
I must be on my way
Before I pass this way again
Be many a dog, dog daysThe sheriff does not know my face
He does not know my name
But before the sun goes down again
Hell know them just the sameOne kiss before I leave you
And one more for the wind
Every day I hope and pray
To be with you againWith the poor man's word and a rich man's gold
Whos chances would you choose?
The judge and jury close their eyes
And justice dont come throughIll run from what I havent done
'Cause the long arm of the law
Got a silver spade thatll dig my grave
Before on us allOne kiss before I leave you
And one more for the wind
Every day I hope and pray
To be with you againDown along the railroad tracks
Waitin' in the weeds
The first freight train to the leave the yard
Will be the one I'm inIll find a place on the boxcar roof
Where the wind cuts cold and deep
I dont know need no railroad man
To catch me in my sleepOne kiss before I leave you
And one more for the wind
Every day I hope and pray
To be with you again
To be with you again

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/