All Lovers Lost

Faith and the Muse

I am my only thief
And jailer keep
Bedeviled and priest beseech
The pander come to meBut mad love
Is religion enough
For my heartAnd to those I gave life
Confessions of a gift worth end
I am the spirit's grin kissed
With the taste of silent tearsAnd the glutton for emptiness
Can feast on my heart
Such is the reign of banishment
In my heart
All lovers lost
Find them in the heart of darkness
All lovers lost
Find them in the heart of darkness
All lovers lost
Find them in the heart of darkness
All lovers lost
Find them in the heart of darknessIn the minds where my dear alvina weeps
Once lifted their voice in praise
Argus-eyed my useful ghost did lose its mind
Still they curse my former nameBut mad love
Is religion enough
For my heart
Mad love
Is religion enough
For my heartAll lovers lost
Find them in the heart of darkness
(Repeat x7)
