Monkey Begun

Lou Barlow

For balance and control, a battle rages in my soul
Am I monkey, am I man? One finger holding back the dam
Confusion was alright until it kept me up at night
Heavy, breathing okay until you took my breath awayNow I feel like I've just begun
I feel I've just begun
There's no worry, we're all undone
I feel I've just be, feel I've just begunAm I ever overconfident?
Have I ever been untrue?
I've been over and under and through
Nothing much at all, oh, there's so much more to doNow I feel like I've just begun
I feel I've just begun
There's no hurry, no race to run
I feel I've just be, life has just begunSomething ended before it ended (Feel a sunset in your eyes)
We're alright
