Invisible Ink

Blowsight

Did you know that I knew all the things that you used to do?
About the boys in the afternoons, when I worked like a pig and you figured it'd be good for you
Why do I wanna focus on the past now, when I feel fine?
Could it be from my destructive mind
I wrote it down on a note where the ink is invisible
(Go)So I'm digging deep down to reveal what is left unsaid
I guess I'll never see you in bed
All I produce is a note where the ink is invisible
Was I just one of ten, just a friend at the masquerade?
Your friends show a different shade
They found a note on the floor where the ink is invisibleHey! Did you ever wanna give it a try?
Did you ever wanna see me alive?
Too fast
You never warned me
Too scared
Too drunk
Too late
Too horny
Hey! Now the love got stuck in the night
And if we do it we should do it all right
Too fast
You never warned me
Too scared
Too drunk
Too late
Too hornyNow did you know that I knew all the things that you loved to do?
About the boys in the afternoons, while I worked, got abused as I
Figured we'd be over soonWhy did I wanna focus on the past when I should be fine?
I'd rather spoon through the night with Eli but my hands are tied
But my hands are tiedHey! Did you ever wanna give it a try?
Did you ever wanna see me alive?
Too fast
You never warned me
Too scared
Too drunk
Too late
Too horny
Hey! Now the love got stuck in the night
And if we do it we should do it all right

Too fast
You never warned me
Too scared
Too drunk
Too late
Too hornySo did you ever need a way to deny
I promise you I hated to try
I can't believe you never saw me this way
I was alive until I heard you say:"Do you feel alive?
Do you feel alive?"Did you ever need a way to deny
I promise you I hated to try
I can't believe you never saw me this way
I was alive until I heard you say:"Did you ever wanna give me a try?
Did you ever wanna see me alive?"Hey! Did you ever wanna give it a try?
Did you ever wanna see me alive?
Too fast
You never warned me
Too scared
Too drunk
Too late
Too horny
Hey! Now the love got stuck in the night
And if we do it we should do it all right
Too fast
You never warned me
Too scared
Too drunk
Too late
Too horny
