

Run Free

Rebecca Ferguson

i used to know a girl, who had a dream her head full of ambition, her heart filled with pain walking the same walk, seeing the same faces wishing she could, trade places maybe i could fly away, she'd say even though time's moved on, i still feel the same and i wanna be happy
and i wanna find my way
and i wanna run free
and i wanna fly away every good thing comes at a price sometimes you just gotta melt the ice it's not a question of when, just how after all this time, i've found that i wanna be happy
and i wanna find my way

and i wanna run free
and i wanna fly away
i wanna be happy
and i wanna find my way
and i wanna run free
and i wanna fly away
it may take time to find my feet you'll get there sometime, they say to me but i wanna be happy
and i wanna find my way
and i wanna run free
and i wanna fly away
i'm gonna be happy
and i wanna find my way
and i, i'm gonna run free, and i, i'm gonna fly away [repeat]

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>