Imagination

Lee DeWyze

I went to the edge of the world to find you
And all I found was me
Waste of time
Who do you belong to?One light with the dark
And the rest go out
Does anybody know?
Cause I don'tWhere I'm gonna go,
You never know
And we're all just figments of imaginationWe circled then drained away (?)
To the center was the story again (?)
Never ceases to avoid meWhere do you draw the line?
Love starts in a bottle of wine,
Overdone but never overdone
Does anybody know?
Cause I don'tWhere we're gonna know,
You never know.
And we're all just figments of imaginationWho said where it was black? (?)
Where do you go when you slip between the cracks?
Cause I don't and you know
But does anybody know
Does anybody know?
Cause I don'tWhere we're gonna go,
You never know
And we're all figments of imagination
