

Can We Find a Reason?

Lenny Kravitz

Is there anyone out there
Willing to try
Or are we satisfied
With just getting by We've hurt Mother Nature
Can't you see her she's crying
We robbed and we raped her
And taken her child And oh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Can we find a reason?
Just think about it
And oh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Can we find a reason?
To live another season
Yeah! We're fighting more battles
Everyday we're alive
We should be rejoicing
But instead we cry This world's so polluted
You would think we were blind
We poison our children
Before they're defined And oh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Can we find a reason?
Just think about it
And oh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Can we find a reason?
To live another season
Yeah! Excuse me for saying
'Cause I've never been shy
But if we don't stop this
We sure gonna die Yes I hope we can make it
'Cause this river's run dry
Now our only battle
Will be to survive, hey And oh, oh, oh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Can we find a reason?
Come on and think about it
Hey and oh oh, ohh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Can we find a reason?
To live another season
Yeah, it's the new millennium Yeah yeah yeah
Can we find a reason?
To live another season

Yeah!
And oh, oh, oh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Can we find a reason?
To live another season
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
(Can we find a reason?)
(To live another season)
It's the new millennium
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Can we find a reason?
To live another season
Yeah, yeah, yeah
