

Firebreather

Running Wild

Three days of darkness, eternal night

Celestial sign swallows up the light

A raging storm, Armageddon's here

The enslaved's hope is the evil's fearHe rides the wind on silent wings, laser beams ripping steel

Black helicopters go up in flames, before they know that he's realFirebreather, raging from the stormy sky

Firebreather, smoke and thunder steal the light awayBlack soldiers walk the gates of hell

They drop their mask, they come off their shell

Minotaurs and genetic beasts

Invade the world with a bloody feastHe rides the wind on silent wings, laser beams ripping steel

Black helicopters go up in flames, before they know that he's realFirebreather, raging from the stormy sky

Firebreather, smoke and thunder steal the light awayMan in black your time is up

Universal law, you're outta luck

No dirty tricks, no unfair fight

He shoots your head off with his first strikeHe rides the wind on silent wings, laser beams ripping steel

Black helicopters go up in flames, before they know that he's realFirebreather, raging from the stormy sky

Firebreather, smoke and thunder steal the light away
