

Ghoststory

Beseech

[Music: Robert]

[Arrangement: Mikael, Klas]

[Lyrics: Jorgen]We lost the paradise of curiousity

Now we're bound to live in anxiety

All we have is hope to find the answer of the greatest question, will we live foreverWe all dream of.....

So we head on.....Now cast aside your fears, and start believing in there's a world beyond this, a beginning

We may not see it now, but in the final it will be much greater than our survivalWe all dream of.....

So we head on.....In a new tomorrow, with all the reasons

we can watch our past, and all the seasons

Now we know the answer, and if you wonder we can tell you, we will live foreverWe all dream of.....

So we head on.....
