

Lying to Yourself

Asia

You tell me lies that you believe
You say it's the real thing
I can see how you've deceived
I know what's happening And seeing is believing 'til you find out
That you're blind You're lying to yourself
(Lying to yourself)
You're lying to yourself
(Lying to yourself) Wake up, shake up, turn around
I'll give it to you straight
It's been too long, it's past a joke
Something I can't take The cost is due, now tell me
Money ain't the means You're lying to yourself
(Lying to yourself)
You're lying to yourself
(Lying to yourself) Lying to yourself again
You're lying to yourself again
(You're lying to yourself again) You're lying to yourself again
You're lying to yourself again
(You're lying to yourself again) Lying in the morning
I'll kiss you goodbye
You won't regret a part of this
And neither will I Revealing hearts with a common need
Play their hands You're lying to yourself
(Lying to yourself)
You're lying to yourself
(Lying to yourself)
