Seasons come, people go
Lovers change, you don't know
You did change but we both agree
And you're not you and she's not me I feel like I've been abused
I mean it's like hand me down shoes
[Incomprehensible] on my birthday
I feel divorced on my anniversary and I Same shit different day, things change but what about me?
It's cool I know the game, I find a way to deal with the pain
Same shit different day, things change but what about me?
Pass away and go on, on, on, on
I forgive you, yes but I won't forget no, no, oh, oh, yeah See, if I let you, you was a brother built on honesty and I
I suppose that you and me can talk about anything and everything
Oh, you was the same but you changed, baby, you say it's me
But I'm treating you accordingly Same shit different day, things change but what about me?
It's cool I know the game, I find a way to deal with the pain
Same shit different day, things change but what about me Pass away and go on, on, on, on
Lord, I forgive you, yes but I won't, I won't forget
No, no, no, no, no, no, oh, oh, oh Oh oh ooh ooh , oh no ooh oh
I had it all wrong, oh oh Same shit different day, things change but what about me?
It's cool I know the game, I find a way to deal with the pain
Same shit different day, things change but what about me? Pass away and go on, on, on, on
Oh, I forgive you, yes but I won't, I won't, I won't forget
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Same shit different day, things change but what about me?
It's cool I know the game, I find a way to deal with the pain
Same shit different day, things change but what about me?
Pass away and go on, on, on, on [Incomprehensible] I forgive you, nigga
But I, I can't forget you, nigga, I won't forget you
But you got to go, nigga, I don't know, don't know Same shit different day, it's cool I know the game
