Sure As Hell

Tonight Alive

And as I'm looking back
On the past two years
It seems like I have conquered every fear I ever had or thought would hold me back but now we're standing on the edge and I just have to askI don't regret a thing
And I won't forget a thing
And I didn't once pretend,
Did you?
Did you?I never felt more free,
I've never been more true
never thought I'd see today with you I didn't picture this Wasn't hoping high
But now I'm reaching for the things I left behind
'cause I'm finally content
And I sure as hell meant all of itThe tears well up and I Just can't help but smile
I think about the way
This took me by surprise
To see how far, we've come My only wish
That we would see the sun at the end of all of this andIs it to proud to say that I like who we became
And I guess that growing up turned out to be okayI never felt more free, I've never been more true
I wasn't hoping high
But now I'm reaching for the things I left behind
'cause we're standing on the edge
and its nothing less than perfect
'cause I'm finally content
And I sure as hell meant all of itThe water shines Sings to the sky
The sea-spray
It stings my eyes
If I could stay
I'd stay all night

I'd stay all nightI never felt more free,
I've never been more true
I wasn't hoping high now I'm reaching for the things I left behind
no I couldn't ask for more yeah every heartache was worth it now I'm finally content
And I sure as hell meant all of it
