She Used to Be Mine

Spin Doctors

There she goes, on down the beach
Just like the moon, she's out of reach
Losing my mind, already lost my girl
Blew the top right off my pretty worldOh, she used to be mine
She used to be mine
She used to be mine
'Til I saw her with another man'Nother man
Til I saw her with another man
Hand in hand
Til I saw her with another man'Nother man
'Til I saw her with another man
Hand in handOh, there she goes, on out of my life
She's my ex, thought she'd be my wife
Kept my ring, my wedding band
Keeps it on the same finger but on the other handOh, she used to be mine
I can taste her mouth
Taste her tears
I can hear what she used to saySHe'd be looking up from her coffee cup
And through the steam, I can see her glance awayI miss her hand on my hip
Tongue on my lips
Lips on my cup of tea
I miss the way shed lieAnd the way she'd sigh
When she'd lie right down
Just next to meOh, she used to be mine
