Let Me Hold It Open

Cowboy Mouth

You bite my neck when I try to kiss you
You slap my face when I say I'd missed youNow I have lived through all this before
And I don't plan to take anymore
So if you want to walk out the door
Then let me hold it open for youI've taken more than I'm gonna take
You've broken more then you're gonna break
So if you want to make this mistake
Than let me hold it open for youI've got to wonder why did you chose me
You say you love me just to confuse me
Now I have been through this crap before
And I don't plan to take anymore
So if you want to walk out the door
Then let me hold it open for youI've taken more than I'm gonna take
You've broken more then you're gonna break
So if you want to make this mistake
Than let me hold it open for youI'm the one who kept your world afloat
Had the sense to hope for the better way of life
But this is how you try to pay me back
With your slay attacks and the silent ways to break me downI have lived through this crap before
And I don't plan to take anymore
So if you want to walk out the door
Then let me hold it open for you
I've taken more than I'm gonna take
You've broken more then you're gonna break
So if you want to make this mistake
Than let me hold it open for youLet me hold it open for you
Let me hold it open for you
