

Falling Stars

Sunset Strippers

Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Waiting for a star to fall
And carry your heart into my arms
That's where you belong
In my arms baby, yeah Waiting for a star to fall
And carry your heart into my arms
That's where you belong
In my arms baby, yeah Waiting for a star to fall
And carry your heart into my arms
That's where you belong
In my arms baby, yeah Waiting for a star to fall
And carry your heart into my arms
That's where you belong
In my arms baby, yeah Waiting to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Trying to catch your heart is like
Trying to catch a star, it's like
Waiting for a star to fall
And carry your heart into my arms
That's where you belong
In my arms baby, yeah Waiting for a star to fall
And carry your heart into my arms
That's where you belong
In my arms baby, yeah Waiting for a star to fall
And carry your heart into my arms
That's where you belong
In my arms baby, yeah Waiting for a star to fall
And carry your heart into my arms

That's where you belong
In my arms baby, yeah
