

To Keep Me

That Dog

It's time to shut off
It's time to turn down
It's time to get lost
I must turn me aroundTo lessen the pain
To broaden the truth
To dispose of no gain
I haven't the proofTo keep me from falling back
To keep me from letting go
To keep me from holding onto myselfThe era has ended
The time has come
It will be so splendid
We've only just begun
