Hit It Runnin

The Reducers

I read the stories in the paper
I watch the news on the TV
They say to keep your eyes wide open
It all seems like deja vu to me

I go out walking in the city
Just trying to keep things to myself
There's gonna come a time
Someone'll cross that line
That's when it all goes straight to hell

There's people knocking at my front door
ANd someone's always on the phone
There's letters piled up in the mailbox
Yeah, these creeps won't leave me alone

I try it keep it all inside me
I try and stay between the lines
There's come a day
I'm gonna walk away
I'm gonna leave it all behind

Gonna hit the ground runnin, hit it runnin
Hit runnin, ya know
Gonna hit the ground runnin, hit it runnin
Hit runnin and go

Gonna hit the ground runnin, hit it runnin
Hit runnin, ya know
Gonna hit the ground runnin, hit it runnin
Hit runnin and go

There ain't no roadmaps where I'm goin
There ain't no easy way back home
I fare beyond the city sidewalks
Just try to make it on your own

Gonna hit the ground runnin, hit it runnin
Hit runnin, ya know
Gonna hit the ground runnin, hit it runnin

Hit runnin and go

Gonna hit the ground runnin, hit it runnin
Hit runnin, ya know
Gonna hit the ground runnin, hit it runnin
Hit runnin and go
