Ordinary Life

Leon Majcen

Iâ€™ll be the one, to have washed away to the sea oh where from opinion, a way to be free and I wanna make some promises that i canâ€™t keep Iâ€™m tired of always caring of what you think of me

Im gonna travel the world, Iâ€™m gonna see all the sights cuz its more than just living an average and ordinary life,

You gotta love who you want you gotta do what you want cuz its more than just living
an average and ordinary life,

This world is a place that can be so good, but be so cruel, now they act like they care but, in the end they never do so follow your heart, what you want to be, donâ€™t regret all the mistakes youâ€™ve made cuz in the end well all be dead

Iâ€™m gonna live as of now and wonâ€™t let anything get me down cuz its more than just living an average an ordinary life

Iâ€™m gonna be my own man hell Ima do what i can to make sure i ainâ€™t living and average and ordinary life

hell Ima do what i can
to make sure i ainâ€™t living and average and ordinary life
