

Unlike Those Ho's

Keybone

I got a question that I will like to ask, why?
Why is there so many wack music out there? Those who know better do better
Unlike those Ho's
Those who know better do better
Unlike those Ho's It's a new day, new page, welcome to a new age
If you never knew, wake from your slumbers
Men lie, women lie but not numbers
A leader follows but not a dumb ass
Tomorrow lies in the hands of the meek
Not the weak or the geek or the type feeling sick
Everyday is a war, everything that we saw
Is raw and uncut, regardless, we fought
Marched through the fog, smashed through the club
You are looking at a king from a yesterday's cub
All of this had started from the days I used to dub
Dull on this and you may never get another chance
To show me your dance, while I'm holding your hands
Let's go with two step, show me what you rep
Do it like this, you will raise a few spikes
Do it like me, praises and new likes
Those who know better do better
Unlike those Ho's
Those who know better do better
Unlike those Ho's Follow my leads, can't help but sowing more seeds
I give it all to God, he always knows my needs
I'm worry free, I take my time, you can't hurry me
Got no regrets, so I'm sorry-free
I'm living mine like there's no other
Living fine like there's no brother
Even grind like there's no border
An open mind is all you need, so don't bother
If you get too deep, you can get stuck
Cos it gets too steep when you are out of luck
If it ever gets to creep, then you are out of work
Make sure you know how to boogie and know how to rock
So no matter what the song says when the song plays
You will keep grooving, constantly you are moving
Every other day, you will keep improving
At first, it's all about the attitude

And later on the gratitude, let me show you what you gotta do
Those who know better do better
Unlike those Ho's
Those who know better do better
Unlike those Ho's Can't be a Jack of all trade or run with the Jones's
The least I would be as dope as Keybone is Without being told, you know we own this
You doubt I'm gold, so I had to reload it
Everyday cashing out, we are loaded
With the future in our hands, we remold it
There's no stopping soon cos there's more coming soon
I'm the real deal and there's no forming goon
I'm the type you can ask about, I don't ask them out
I just axe them out, like a Gee
I do what is supposed to be done
It's a takeover, the saga already begun
We don't even have to battle cos we steadily won
Mayday Mayday, every God made day is payday
Roger that to know that Key told you that
Roger that to where them real soldiers at Those who know better do better
Unlike those Ho's
Those who know better do better
Unlike those Ho's
