

What They Say

Zara Larsson

Break it up
It can feel like I don't know, but I do
And all I want
Is something like seeing you smile, oh yes, I do
But you don't have to be here anymore
So what you gonna do? Just go and call it off
But what if I try another way?
Just take a little advice from me Whatever you do, just don't believe what they say
Whatever you do, just don't believe what they say
'Cause they don't believe you like I believe in you anyway
So whatever you do, whatever you do, babe
Just don't believe what they...
Never lie
I'd go to the edge of the light every time for you
Just do what you need and I know that it's golden
Just take what you want and leave what you don't Let the world sink in and stick to your bones 'Cause you don't have to be here anymore
I'm holdin' on to you, so you're not fallin' off
So what if I try another day?
Just take a little advice from me Whatever you do, just don't believe what they say
Whatever you do, just don't believe what they say
'Cause they don't believe you like I believe in you anyway
So whatever you do, whatever you do, babe
Just don't believe what they say
What they say
'Cause I believe in you with all of my heart
Know that it's true, I know it's hard
I believe in you with all of my heart
Know that it's true, I know it's hard
I believe in you with all of my heart
Know that it's true, I know it's hard
I believe in you (I believe in you)
I believe in you Just don't believe what they say (ooh yeah, 'cause I believe in you)
What they say (don't believe in what they say)
What they say (what they say)
What they say (Ooh)
